

25X1

SECURITY INFORMATION

REPORT

COUNTRY Czechoslovakia

DATE DISTR. 23 SEPT. 53

SUBJECT Soviet Advisers Attached to the Czechoslovak Army

NO. OF PAGES 2

PLACE
ACQUIREDNO. OF ENCLS.
(LISTED BELOW)DATE
ACQUIREDSUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

25X1

DATE OF IN

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

25X1

1. One Soviet Army officer, Colonel Alexandr MALJUCIK¹, was assigned as adviser (poradce) to [redacted] the 3rd Tank Div., at Mlada, near Milovice /N 50-14, E 14-54/. Col. MALJUCIK was a tank officer,

25X1

2. The Colonel was already assigned to the 3rd Tank Div. [redacted] in the Fall of 1952.

25X1

25X1

3. Col. MALJUCIK [redacted] lived in the camp area with the Division's Czechoslovak commander, a Lt. Col. CILC (fnu). Colonel MALJUCIK [redacted] usually had no direct official contact or communication with anyone except Lt. Col. CILC.

25X1

25X1

25X1

-SECRET-

SECURITY INFORMATION

25X1

Page Denied

SECRET

25X1

-2-

4. Col. MALJUCIK attended most of the exercises of the Division and its subordinate units, but never made any comment at the time to anyone except Lt. Col. CILC. The latter, of course, passed on Col. MALJUCIK's observations and criticisms as his own.

5. [redacted] during the ministerial exercises² in March 1953, four Soviet officers (colonels and lieutenant colonels) visited the Division in the company of General JANKO (fnu), a Czechoslovak general from the Ministry of National Defense in Prague. [redacted] these officers were from a Soviet military mission in Prague.

25X1

6. At the Army Signal School in Nove Mesto nad Vahom /N 48-45, E 17-507, [redacted] there was one Soviet Army communications officer, a colonel, on permanent duty.

25X1

25X1

[redacted] Although the colonel was a communications specialist, he kept what he had to say for the head of the school, a Czechoslovak. At any rate, he never gave lectures or instruction directly to the students.

25X1

[redacted] Comments:

25X1

1. [redacted] Czechoslovak spelling.
2. Apparently large-scale maneuvers which were held twice a year and lasted six days.

SECRET

25X1

Page Denied